

Environment Canada's Canadian Lightning Detection Network (CLDN) Software and Data
Limited Use Software and Data License Agreement (Part 1)

WARNING: PERMISSION TO USE SOFTWARE AND DATA IS CONDITIONAL UPON YOU, THE USER, AGREEING TO THE TERMS SET OUT BELOW. DO NOT USE SOFTWARE AND DATA UNTIL YOU HAVE READ AND ACCEPTED ALL THE TERMS SET OUT BELOW, WISH TO BECOME A LICENSEE, HAVE SIGNED AT THE PLACE INDICATED BELOW AND RETURNED THIS SIGNED AGREEMENT TO THE ADDRESS BELOW BY FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION. YOUR SIGNATURE SHALL BE ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS AND YOU WILL BE BOUND TO THEM. IF YOU DO NOT WISH TO ACCEPT THE TERMS SET OUT BELOW DO NOT USE SOFTWARE AND DATA AND RETURN SOFTWARE AND DATA TO THE ADDRESS BELOW. THIS LICENSE IS EFFECTIVE UPON ITS RECEIPT BY EC.

GRANT OF LICENSE - In accordance with your agreement to abide by the terms herein, you are granted a temporary, limited, personal, non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-assignable and non-transferrable license to use software and data. You acquire no rights to software and data beyond those granted herein. You may make one (1) copy of software and data for back-up purposes only. You may install software and data on a single personal computer only. If you desire to install software and data on more than one computer you must contact Environment Canada (hereinafter EC) and obtain written permission to do so. You may not install, store, display or transmit software or data on or through any intranet system or on or through any World Wide Web site on the Internet.

PERMITTED USE, TERM AND TERMINATION - This software and data are provided to you as a member of an academic research organization for the sole purpose of carrying out the single research project entitled Canadian Fires.

The permitted use of this software and data and this license agreement shall terminate not later than 20231001 (yyyymmdd):

Software and data are not to be used for any other purpose. This license applies only to one research project. If you wish to use software and data in more than one research project you must execute another license agreement. When the research project terminates or when you the licensee, are no longer involved in the research project, this license terminates. You or EC may terminate this Agreement without cause upon five (5) days written notice. Upon termination for any cause, you undertake within 30 days to: (1) return all software and data to EC; (2) remove all copies of software and data from all storage media; and, (3) provide a signed statement to the effect that no other copies of software and data exist in your possession.

DOCUMENTATION - This license applies to any enclosed documentation or related documentation. Documentation may not be copied, modified or used in any way not contemplated or authorized by this agreement.

YOUR OBLIGATIONS AS LICENSEE - Except as authorized in this Agreement, you shall not copy, reproduce, translate, adapt, vary, reverse-engineer, sell, trade, decompile or modify software and data in any way without written authorization of EC. You will supervise and control the use of software and data in accordance with this Agreement. You will ensure that all co-researchers, students, employees, sub-contractors and other individuals who have access to software and data are aware of the terms of this Agreement. You acknowledge that all intellectual property rights in and to software and data including moral rights belong to EC and you shall not dispute, contest or otherwise interfere with those rights. Your failure to comply with your obligations or terms of this license will be deemed to be a breach of contract terminating this license immediately and without notice. Upon your breach of this license EC shall be free to pursue any available remedy against you.

NO WARRANTY - You acknowledge that software and data are not guaranteed by EC to be error or virus free. Any errors or virus in software or data will not breach this license. You agree to accept software and data "as is" and you assume all risk in their use. EC makes no representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, relating but not limited to title, design, operation, merchantability, fitness for purpose or intellectual property infringement of the rights of third parties regarding software and data.

NO LIABILITY - EC shall have no liability of any kind whatsoever and howsoever arising to you or anyone else whether from breach of this contract, defective software and data, contract, tort, loss of revenue or profit, or for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages even if you have been advised of the possibility of such damages.

INDEMNITY - You shall indemnify and hold harmless EC against all liabilities, costs and expenses however arising out of the exercise of any rights granted herein including any damages or loss consequential or otherwise from your use of software and data.

PUBLICATION REQUIREMENTS – Prior to any publication associated with your project where EC data or software have been used, you agree to provide a copy of the publication to EC in advance and shall give the following credit within the publication "We wish to thank Environment Canada for their generous permission to use Canadian Lightning Detection Network (CLDN) data and/or software". Other than this, you are not allowed to use any name or trade-mark of EC or the Government of Canada

Lightning information provided by EC or derived from information provided by EC may not be used for direct comparison with other lightning detection networks unless approved in writing, in advance by EC. This is to ensure proper lightning data interpretation, proper analysis techniques and the appropriateness of the lightning information to be used in comparisons.

The location of CLDN sensors is considered proprietary to EC and may not be published unless approved in writing, in advance by EC.

The licensee may not invoke any proprietary or commercial restrictions not otherwise stated herein.
